Getting it Right 2017

SOYBEAN PRODUCTION MEETING

An educational event exclusive to farmers.

Thursday, February 2, 2017

Canad Inns Destination Centre – Portage la Prairie, MB

Agenda

TIME	SESSION – located in Ambassador H
8:30 am	Registration
8:50 am	Welcome – Laryssa Grenkow, MPSG Director of Research and Production
9:00 am	Causes and Management of Iron Deficiency Chlorosis – Dr. Jay Goos, NDSU Professor
9:45 am	Marketing Challenges with Western Canada's Low Protein Soybeans – Jim Millington, Soy Canada Director of Market Development
10:00 am	Manitoba Weed Survey Results – Dr. Jeanette Gaultier, MB Ag Weed Specialist
10:30 am	Coffee Break
10:45 am	Tillage and Residue Management Effect on Soybean Establishment – Dr. Aaron Daigh, NDSU Assistant Professor
11:30 am	Three Questions for Management of Insect Pests in Soybeans – Jordan Bannerman, U of M Instructor
12:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 pm	Table Talks*
3:30 pm	Networking Session – sponsored by Top Crop Manager
5:00 pm	Meeting Adjourned

*TABLE TALKS SESSION

ROOM	STATION	PRESENTER	TOPIC
B	1	Kristen Podolsky, U of M Research Agronomist	Research Behind Recommended Soybean Seeding Rates and Inoculant Strategies
	2	Scott Chalmers, WADO Diversification Specialist	Intercropping Opportunities with Pulses
C	3	Greg Bartley, MPSG On-Farm Specialist	On-Farm Network Trial Results
	4	Laura Schmitt, U of M Graduate Student	Optimizing Seeding Rate and Row Spacing for Pinto and Navy Beans
D	5	Avery Simundsson, PAMI Project Leader	Economic and Agronomic Considerations for Tile Drainage
	6	Lorne Greiger, PAMI Project Manager	Reducing Soybean Header Losses at Harvest
E	7	Jim Millington, Soy Canada Director of Market Development	Marketing Manitoba Soybeans
	8	Jeanette Gaultier, MB Ag Weed Specialist	Weed Control Options and Risks with Dicamba-Resistant Soybean

NETWORKING SESSION SPONSORED BY Top Crop Manager

BROUGHT TO YOU BY Manitoba Pulse & Soybean Growers